Gov. Bradley's Veto Message

STATE OF NEVADA,
EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT,
March 1, 1877.

To the Honorable, the Senate: I return without my approval Senate bill No. 126, "An Act amending and supplementary to 'an Act providing for the taxation of the net proceeds of the mines,'" approved February 28, 1871. This bill amends the Act of 1871 and reduces the taxable property of the State about twenty per cent. The friends of this measure admit that the reduction of the assessment on proceeds of mines will be by this bill thirty-one and a half per cent. Others anticipate a reduction of from forty-seven to fifty per cent. at the least. Two principal reasons are advanced why this bill should become a law:

First—That upon its approval the California and Consolidated Virginia Mining Companies will pay over the tax which they have so unjustly refused to pay for nearly a year, and that if this amount was paid over, the rate of taxation on real estate and personal property could be reduced to seventy-five cents on the hundred dollars. My answer is, that it does not become the dignity of the State to be dictated to by a couple of non-resident corporations, nor does experience teach us that a submission to the demands of wealth to-day will prevent it from doubling its demands to-morrow. If this Legislature, pledged as it is to the whole people of the State to protect them against the release of these foreign corporations from the payment of taxes upon their profits, choose to go back upon their pledges and turn over the State, bound hand and foot, to these companies, I cannot help it; but no part of the crime shall rest upon my shoulders. If the taxes can be reduced to seventy-five cents on the hundred dollars after releasing twenty per cent. of the assessable property, we know that they can be reduced to sixty cents by not releasing this property. Any other view of this subject is mere shallow pretense and unworthy of consideration.

The other objection to the old law is that while the ores are taxed at their full value, less the cost of conversion into bullion, other property is taxed at much less than its full value. If this is so, is it good policy for the State to allow the reduction of the assessed value of real and personal property to a just valuation? In my biennial messages to the present and previous Legislatures, I earnestly asked for the creation of a State Board of Equalization, to equalize the assessment of property all over the State. The whole argument in behalf of these companies is that because there is a defective mode of assessing real and personal property, that therefore the mode of assessing the proceeds of the mines should be made defective. The interests of the State demand that if there is any change in the assessment of this property, it should be upward and not downward. But as a matter of fact, we know that the proceeds of mines have been taxed at a lower rate of assessment than the real and personal property of the State.

In 1875 the proceeds of the mines exceeded $35,000,000, and less than $18,000,000 were taxed, leaving $18,000,000 that did not pay a farthing to the State or county. In 1876 the product of the mines was over $48,000,000, $34,000,000 of which paid taxes, and $14,000,000 did not pay a cent. And recollect, to that tax on proceeds of the mines is, as far as the two companies demanding this reduction are concerned, purely a tax on profits, the easiest tax paid that can possibly be levied. But if the provisions of this bill were not so palpably unjust to the great mass of taxpayers as they are; if they did not release from taxation the small portion of the property of these two companies now taxed and place just the same burdens upon the people of the State; if they did not exempt the property of wealthy non-residents and load down the weaker and poorer people for whom we are legislating, there would yet be one objection to this bill which would force me to withhold my approval. I refer to its unconstitutionality. Article X of the Constitution reads:

SECTION 1. The Legislature shall provide by law for a uniform and equal rate of assessment and taxation, and shall prescribe such regulations as shall secure a just valuation for taxation of all property, real personal and possessory, excepting mines and mining claims, the proceeds of which alone shall be taxed, and also excepting such property as may be exempted by law for municipal, educational, literary, scientific, religious or charitable purposes.

It is admitted that the two companies that ask for this bill have never been assessed otherwise than as provided for by the Constitution, and it is also admitted that the present bill will reduce their assessment thirty-one and a half per cent., and I claim, therefore, that it does not "secure a just valuation for taxation." Our Superior Court, speaking of the constitutionality of this tax law, on page 179 Third Nevada Reports, says: The closing sentence of section 99 directs a tax to be levied on three-fourths of the value, previously ascertained, of the proceeds of the mines. This is clearly unconstitutional. The value once being ascertained, the whole value is taxable at the same rate as all other property."

In a previous case, the Court, in construing Article P, holds that "the leading feature of this section is, that the taxation shall be equal and uniform, and that the proceeds of the mines only shall be taxed. In other words, whilst the body of the mine remains untaxed, the ore taken out shall be subject to the same ad valorem taxation as other property."

If the Court holds that this section requires "the same ad valorem taxation as other property," what right has the Legislature to fix the assessment and declare that it shall be thirty-one and a half per cent. less than "other property?" And, speaking of the compromise made by the Convention that framed the Constitution, the Court says:

"The result seems to have been a compromise of the extreme views of each party, which is clearly expressed in the Constitution, and embraces two main propositions: First—That all property assessed for an ad valorem tax should be liable to pay the same percentage. Second—That unproductive mines should be entirely free from taxation, whilst those which were productive should pay the regular ad valorem tax on the products, instead of the same tax on the body of the mine itself. There can be no doubt but it was the intention that the entire product should be taxed in lieu of the body of the mine."

All these decisions of our highest court show that all the net proceeds of the mines must be taxed, and any arbitrary fixing by the Legislature of a lower standard of assessment and taxation is, in my judgment, unconstitutional. We are sent here as the sworn servants of the people, to execute and carry out their will. There is no power on earth to release us from the pledges exacted of us by our constituents except themselves. The success or failure of our Government depends upon the representative carrying out his instructions. The whole people, in their State conventions, and in their county conventions, have instructed us as to our duty in relation to the assessment of the net proceeds of the mines. On no other subject were the people of this State ever so outspoken, so unanimous. No member of this Legislature came here in doubt as to the wishes of those who sent him. We all will have an accounting with our respective constituents upon our return home, for the execution of the trust confided to us. While some may return covered with the wreck of broken pledges, others,

I am happy to say, will meet their people and receive the reward of "well done, good and faithful servants." Many will go forth from this feast of the vultures with pledges kept sacred, with manhood unsullied; and the people will know whom to trust in the future. Whatever may be the fate of this bill, I feel that I have done what the people of this State had a right to expect of me, and I hereby submit a portion of their instructions to show the ground on which I have acted.

From the Republican State platform, 1876: Seventh—Whereas, in all just governments the principles of equalization are recognized as best calculated to protect the different properties and industries of the community from invidious taxation; and, whereas, it is eminently just and proper that the mining industries of the State should bear their proportionate part of the burdens of taxation; and, whereas, the Constitution requires the taxation of all property within the State and directly authorizes the taxation of the proceeds of the mines; and, whereas, the present method of ascertaining values for the assessment of the proceeds of the mines is not oppressive to that interest and does not in any manner discriminate against such interest, therefore the Republican party is opposed to any repeal of the present law providing for the taxation of the net proceeds of the mines, looking to any different method of arriving at values for the purpose of taxation.

From the Democratic State platform, 1876: Seventh—We favor an economical administration of our State, county and municipal governments; that taxation be so regulated that no surplus revenue be accumulated; that all property, including the net proceeds of the mines, shall bear its equal burden of taxation; and we are opposed to any legislation in any wise exempting such proceeds from taxation.

From the Elko county Republican platform: Eleventh—That the Senator and Assemblymen this day nominated are, in the event of their election, requested to use all honorable means in their power to prevent the repeal of the so-called "bullion tax," and in the opinion of this Convention the net proceeds of the mines should pay their just proportion of taxes for the support of our government, as with other kinds of property.

Eureka county Democratic platform, September 26th, 1876: We believe the law now in force in this State commonly known as the "bullion tax law" to be just and equitable. We oppose any modification of that law as unjust to the citizen and resident miner, and solely in the interests of foreign and aggregated capital, and we pledge ourselves to support no one for a legislative position who does not pledge himself as opposed to such reduction. Lyon county Citizens' platform: That taxation be so regulated that no surplus revenue be accumulated, and that all property, including the net proceeds of the mines, shall bear its equal burden of taxation, and that we are opposed to any legislation in any wise exempting such net proceeds from taxation.

Humboldt County Democratic platform, September 30th, 1876: That we favor the just and equal taxation of all property, including the net proceeds of the mines, and are opposed to any legislation exempting such proceeds from taxation; and we pledge our nominees for the Senate and Assembly to use all proper and legitimate means to prevent such unjust legislation.

White Pine County Republican platform: That to encourage the development of mines we favor the exemption of such mines from taxation as produce but a limited number of tons per quarter; that we oppose the repeal of the "bullion tax law," but favor a modification of the same.

Storey county Democratic platform: That we are opposed to the exemption of bullion from taxation, and favor such legislation only as shall subject all property, including the net proceeds of the mines, to a just taxation, and which shall be sufficient to defray the necessary expenses of the State, county and municipal governments honestly and economically administered, with no exemptions or special privileges to any.

Lincoln County Democratic platform: That we are opposed to the exemption of bullion from taxation, and favor such legislation only as shall subject all property, including the net proceeds of the mines, to a just taxation, and which shall be sufficient to defray the necessary expenses of the State, county and municipal governments honestly and economically administered, with no exemptions or special privileges to any.

Lincoln county Republican platform: We oppose any repeal of the "bullion tax," but favor such modifications in the taxation as shall reduce the amount of revenue to be collected to a sum only sufficient to meet the expenses of Government.

In conclusion, allow me to say that if this bill is defeated, there is no reason to doubt that all the taxes due from the bonanza mines can be collected in a few months if the proper officers will do their duty. The tax suits cannot be delayed by appeal to the United States Courts, as they have no jurisdiction in such cases. It is very desirable to have passed what is known as the Nichols bill, but it is not a necessity. I, however, deem it very important to pass a loan bill before you adjourn, to bridge over the few months that may intervene before the bonanza mines can be compelled to pay their taxes now in arrears.

A Hard Time.

The Enterprise has a sad load to carry. The San Francisco papers, who are interested in our mines but not in the State, all inveigh against the compromise, and now the Elko Independent has fallen into line and the leading paper has its editorial hands full. It is fast learning that its attempt to hoodwink the people has failed, and being the mainstay of the movement, the Enterprise is just now kept busy and its locker of abuse is well nigh exhausted. It has drawn sad pictures of "1,000 mothers and 1,000 fathers sitting sorrowfully and gazing at their offspring tearfully." He has had his "temples of learning" closed and his jails opened. In imagination he has afflicted the State with every evil except small-pox, and yet the State refused to compromise its interests. Sit down, neighbor, and make up your mind that you are beaten. Don't abuse Governor Bradley, for he is a thoroughly brave and honest man, and you are breeding suspicions against your own ability by this twaddle.

If you must abuse somebody, take us. You did us many favors during the session, called us many harsh names in your own noble way and started out to annihilate us. It hurt your cause as we expected, and was intended to damage us but, bless you, we didn't mind it, in fact rather liked it. Was it not rather strange, Mr. Enterprise, that you never suspected Governor Bradley of idiocy until he vetoed the compromise? Your editorials before that event were very conservative. You thought His Excellency an average man and sure to sign the bill, but simultaneously with his disapproval came to you the knowledge of his imbecility. Was it not strange that these two ideas should arrive together, and upset without argument the expressed opinions of an hour before. Perhaps the Governor deserved this because of his inability to comprehend the Enterprise logic. We are not sure, indeed, that we do not deserve as much, for there have been articles in favor of the compromise which we never could grasp, and whose motives we can not understand.

Such abuse, however, can not hurt the Governor, and if you must use it, give it to us. We like to see you in a rage, your pen dripping with Billingsgate, and your intellectual nostrils spouting destruction. "Have at it, then," for your silence makes us fear that you do not love us as much as formerly.

Cheerful Outlook.

The New York Tribune says: "Neither the Ku-klux nor carpet-baggers will find much comfort in the new President's language, but the real South will take heart at hearing it, and honest Republicans at the North, alarmed and ashamed at the disgrace which their party has been forced to bear, will hold their heads higher and rejoice in the dawn of a nobler day."

The language of the Tribune expresses the long latent sentiments of the honest men of both parties. Party leeches were truckled to instead of being cast aside. Wholesale unjust abuse was freely dealt in when conservative statements of party principle would have subserved much more effective purposes. The difference between a Republican and a Democrat is more in talk than in opposite views on questions of State. The "real South" wants a strong honest administration; so do the "honest Republicans at the North." There are no issues before the country by which the different sections may be arrayed against each other. The administration of Hayes should be as peaceful and prosperous as that of James Monroe. He has no severe task before him. The very class which he wishes to have the least to do with are: if Republican, lukewarm sympathizers; if Democratic, insanely opposed to him. Further, he is under no obligations to either, and hence may without the least difficulty cut this class off from official patronage and position. If he gathers around him a fine Cabinet and makes good appointments he will be one of the most popular Presidents that we have ever had. Then may the people of the United States "hold their heads higher and rejoice in the dawn of a nobler day."

Veto Message.

We publish on the outside-to-day Governor Bradley's veto message accompanying the compromise bill. It will well repay a careful reading and those who have not formed opinions may take the message as a careful statement of the facts and arguments in the case. Governor Bradley needs no defense beyond a careful reading of this document, and it is significant that the press has not seen fit to attack it in any manner.

The Gold Hill News deserves compliment upon its fairness in publishing the message, and a fair inference is that other papers did not want to place it before the people.

TELEGRAPHIC.

Press comments on Hayes' Inaugural address are quite favorable when from conservative pens and Republican papers, and quite the reverse when coming from extremists and the most of the Democratic press.

The Nashville American thinks ex-Senator Key of Tennessee will be appointed Postmaster General. He is spoken of as a man of ability and integrity.

A number of flags were displayed in Jersey City trimmed in black, and a butcher hung out one wholly of black. Such silly demonstrations do not disturb the people's confidence in Hayes' honesty. The best men of the nation are satisfied.

Stanley Mathews will probably succeed Senator Sherman in the U. S. Senate.

Gen. Joseph E. Johnston is in full sympathy with Hayes, and has even been spoken of as a probable cabinet officer—Secretary of War, but this is mere report.

The total amount appropriated at the last session of Congress is $118,600,000.

A New York date of the 6th says: The Tribune, on the Chinese report, says: The report would hardly seem to favor the continuance of immigration. The Commission agreed with Anti-Chinese Californians, and regards this particular influx of foreigners as a startling menace to Republican institutions and the existence upon the Pacific Coast of Christian civilization. The question to be settled, (and this can be done only by actual experiment) is whether by proper treatment, judicious legislation and honest and benevolent purpose we can do for the Chinese what we have done for other aliens? If we cannot; if they are to remain forever aliens in the land, the sooner they stop coming here the better.

A fire at Karns City, Pa., early Monday morning destroyed the Bateman Hotel. Loss $10,000. The flames spread so rapidly as to cut off the escape of several inmates, and Mrs. Bateman and her daughters, Minnie, Belle, Lou and Winnie perished, and also N. Brown of New York. Six boarders were injured by jumping from the building.

Virginia City Items.

Monday evening the most farcical suicide that has yet been recorded was put upon the tapis at a saloon in Virginia City. One Johnson drew a revolver and fired at his own breast. Down he came, and, as usual, several were very much excited. Smith, an ex-officer, made tracks for a corner, and the boys waltzed up to the bar for a drink, but their surprise was considerably enhanced when the suicide expressed his determination to "stand in." The crowd then stood off. Johnson was grieved at this conduct, and drew from his belt a huge ugly knife, with which he assailed his windpipe, inflicting a wound calculated to allow about 15 drops, more or less, of his life blood to escape. Just at this juncture of the unique proceedings an officer arrived and took Johnson under his protection.

Yesterday morning occurred what is supposed to have been part of a pre-concerted plan for a wholesale break of the prisoners in the Virginia City Jail. As the Jailer Henry Hirsch went into the jail for the purpose of taking the prisoners out to breakfast, after unlocking the cell of Harrington the murderer of Sullivan, that individual sprang out with all his iron fists, and presenting a large-sized self-cocking pistol to Kirsch's head, ordered him to throw up his hands. The Jailer, however, proved himself a determined man, and grappled with Harrington. A prisoner named Nelson, who is serving out a term for grand larceny, came to Harrington's assistance, and a terrible struggle ensued, during which the pistol was twice discharged, one shot striking a purse in Kirsch's pocket and badly bruising his left thigh, the other passing entirely through his right thigh, inflicting a severe flesh wound. At this juncture Carpenter, City Jailer, arrived on the scene, and put an end to the trouble by shooting Harrington through the shoulder. The prisoner's wound is not serious. Investigation reveals the fact that his irons were not cut, but were unlocked. How this was done and how he obtained the pistol are mysteries.

FREIGHTS AND FARES.—Railway companies must prepare themselves for a quiet submission to the sovereign will of State Legislatures regarding the regulation of their rates of fare and freight. The dispatches contain the following important announcement:

Washington, March 2.—The Supreme Court to-day decided in favor of the validity of the Potter law of Wisconsin, which is in effect that States have the right to fix the maximum rate of charge to be made by railroads for freight or passenger transportation through their limits until Congress shall act concerning the relations of inter-State commerce. A State may, therefore, regulate prices so far as they are of domestic concern. A decision was made in the case of Iowa.

Now, then, in order that there may be a uniformity in these rates it is not highly necessary that Congress should attempt to solve this vexatious and intricate problem? This decision confirms the wisdom of Mr. Gorham's paper on the subject of legislation—Carson Appeal.

HEROIC ACT.—A young man named Thompson, driver on Car No. 1 of the Royal street road, as he approached the corner of Franklin and Charleston streets, saw a little child run in front of his mules, and he immediately plied his brake. Seeing that he could not check the car in time, he leaped over the dashboard and seized the child, and just as he was moving off the track the end of the pole struck him and threw him down. He pushed the child out of the way just in time to save its life, but did not have time to get off the track before the car wheel caught him. He was run over across the body and seriously injured—we did not learn how seriously at the time of writing. This is an act of heroism that entitles this young man to the lasting gratitude of the parents of the child and to the praise of all men. He did his whole duty and risked his life in doing it. More than this no man has ever done.—Mobile Register.

The total insurance on the stock of Simon & Gregory, St. Louis, which was destroyed by fire Sunday night, was $205,000; Claflin, Allen & Co.'s building, about $250,000. The loss by the fire was about half a million—the heaviest that has occurred here for many years. One dead and charred body has been taken from the ruins.

LOCAL AFFAIRS.

GRANGER HOUSE.—This is to be the name of the new hotel corner Virginia and Second streets. The house was built last winter by Mr. Gantz, and is well-appointed throughout. The work of papering and finishing has now been completed, and the furniture is now going into place. The bar-room, facing on Virginia street, will be arranged as a model dispensing establishment, with fine counters, mirrors, etc. In the rear is an ample reading room, which will be maintained for that purpose alone. The dining room is also well placed for light, and is easy of access, while the kitchen is to contain all modern improvements and be manipulated by white help. The upper story contains thirteen large well-lighted rooms, carpeted throughout, and will be surrounded by a balcony to accommodate the pleasure of guests. The proprietors, Messrs. Leary & Horan, are new comers to Reno, and will endeavor to make what is now a well-appointed house, a well furnished one also. The opening will be about March 15th.

SNAKE.—This morning early, Hank Whistler came into town at break-neck speed, his horse all foam, and himself very much out of wind. The early risers stared, thinking that a doctor certainly must be needed; but no, he threw himself from his horse, and tottering into Charlie Chase's, sent out men to gather the citizens, and when quite a crowd had assembled, he braced up, gasped twice, and told the following: "Sam Patch and another man, while digging post holes at my ranch found one hundred and two snakes in one post hole. It happened last week, but I didn't find out until this morning, and thought I'd come up and tell you!" At first he hadn't seen the snakes, but before telling it six times, he knew each individual snake's length. They are going to send Hank to Austin to join the Sazerac club.

POLICE.—A petition was presented to the Commissioners yesterday asking them to levy a special tax of 1/4 of one per cent for town purposes. The tax will be principally for the purpose of providing trustworthy policemen, for the town. The proper time for acting upon such petition will be at the next meeting of the board and as the names of 300 citizens are appended to it, it may receive favorable consideration. The names of A. D. Dawson and Martin Saunders have been mentioned in connection with police duty. We commend the appointment of Asa Dawson, the other gentleman we do not know.

PYRAMID.—Gen. R. M. Clarke, Capt Lyons, Superintendent of the Imperial, J. W. Blakesley and another gentleman, under pilotage of Foree Gregory, visited the new camp yesterday at Butte City, returning last night at 12 m. These gentlemen were very much pleased with the prospects of the new district, and have interested themselves in its development. Work on the Gregory and Maple claim will soon be commenced and pushed forward vigorously. We believe that Pyramid claims are valuable property and that many hopes are to be realized during the present year.

"601."—We are informed that four persons received leave of absence from 601 yesterday. We hope that the information may prove untrue, because we know the nervous State of this community at present in regard to such characters. We hope still more earnestly that 601 may not feel it necessary to operate in our town. Still there are men among us who have no business with us, and we are firmly persuaded that the community will not tolerate them. We have heard many mutterings which cause us to recommend discretion as the better part of valor.

FINE COUNTER.—At the Granger House may be seen a specimen of F. C. Updyke's handiwork in the form of a counter which is very finely grained. Laurel, maple and black walnut are faithfully imitated in the panels, and Mr. Updyke may be proud of his work.

F. C. A.—The Co-operative Union's store will soon be opened. Mr. W. H. Crane is to be the manager, while J. S. Shoemaker will probably oversee the matter until his arrival. Tom Norcross to-day began the work of taking an account of stock, and the store will soon be ready for business.

An Arrogant Prisoner.

This morning we received a note from Jas. W. Rover, the new prisoner from Humboldt, requesting us to call and see him. This afternoon we were ushered into his unimposing presence and were introduced to some 500 pages of MSS. He said that several facts, which had not appeared in his trials had been made known to him, and some new phases of the case had recently come to light. These matters he desired to place before the public prior to his trial in April. We of course could not accede to his wish and publish matters which would, in all probability, be brought up during his pending trial. Because we refused to give publicity to an immense amount of dubious matter, he was very much enraged, and swore that it should be published; that he had been hounded long enough in this iniquitous case, and that his cause should be heard.

He says that the whole proceeding is a "contemplated design" to take his mine from him, and that the man who was then Sheriff was a party to the design. From our conversation with him, which was brief, we plainly saw that we could place but little confidence in these statements, and that he was a man wanting in sense of propriety; one who when angered has but little control over his actions.

FIRE POLICE.—The following is a list of the Fire Police appointed by the Board of Fire Commissioners. They will please meet to-morrow evening at the Sheriff's office to perfect their organization:

L. E. Moe, J. D. Pollard, J. F. Myers, Frank Bell, Nat Ford, Thomas Forbes, Jas. Borland, W. A. Seaton, C. S. Stoddard, P. B. Comstock, L. F. Dean, Jas. H. Kinkade, John Sturgeon, R. Smith, H. F. Rohrs, F. C. Updyke, J. F. Cookes, A. C. Bragg, C. T. Bender, Wm. Stopher, Daniel Gates, R. P. M. Kelley, J. C. Hagerman, Sam. Hillyard, T. F. Lacock.

C. P. LUMBER CO.—The Crystal Peak Lumber Company has now in its yard at Verdi 1,000,000 feet of lumber, the same amount of timber, and 500 cords of wood. The flume is kept steadily at work and will be, the supply of water being abundant. The Company's mill in Dog Valley, will start up in about ten days, and has a large amount of logs in the yard ready for sawing. S. A. Hamlin, Superintendent, is a pretty good mill man himself, and orders for lumber, fencing, etc., can be filled now on short notice.

SEVERE ACCIDENT.—This morning, as Mr. R. P. Chapin was trimming some fruit trees with a sharp knife, he almost severed the tendon of the second finger of his left hand. Mr. C. will probably never have as good use of the injured member as he once had. He says the accident would not have been so provoking had it occurred a couple of months later as at present he has considerable work to attend to. We trust he may soon recover from the disagreeable hurt.

GOOD EXAMPLE.—A man entered this office to-day smiling. He did not ask for tobacco nor money. Neither did he want a situation, but going down into his pocket he produced the amount which he owed us and handed it over. The act was so well-timed, yet unlooked for, that we borrowed another half from him and treated. Negligent subscribers are informed that there is plenty of standing room in this office.

Good cigars, 5 for 25 cents, at Yankee Dodge's. 3-7

F. & A. M.—A called communication of Reno Lodge No. 13, F. & A. M., will be held on Saturday, March 10th, 1877, for work in the third degree. All members and sojourning brethren in good standing are requested to attend. By order of the W. M.

Good cigars, 5 for 25 cents, at Yankee Dodge's. 3-7

TILDEN.—The Tilden banner came down to-day. As Tom Barnett says: "One takes the hide, another the tal-low. I takes the rope and Geo. Avery takes the cloth. Poor Tildy!"

FOR SALE.—C. J. Brookins & Co. advertise to-day a very fine Chickering Piano for sale. The price is very low. Call and see him.

WANTED.—A competent woman to do a situation to do chamber work or to serve in the dining room of a hotel. Apply at this office. 2-11

Jottings.

C. S. Varian wants to rent a furnished house.

The prospects of Pyramid are still more encouraging.

Some sneak thief walked off with a bundle of brooms from the sidewalk in front of Yankee Dodge's last night. No cards.

The railroad switch targets are receiving a fresh coat of paint.

Miners are feeling in better spirits over the increased prospects for good pay and steady work. The new districts now being opened up will give employment to a number of such men. Heavy shipments of cattle from the Humboldt region still continue.

W. J. Marsh started for Quincy this morning.

How about those bets, gentlemen? Last night a distressed lawyer might have been seen tearing his hair and wrestling as if with some great problem. The result of his vigil may be found in the Journal under the head of "Our Double Twisted Pun."

The Commissioners have decided on an iron bridge and advertise for bids.

The Gambling bill has been approved but will make no difference in the amount of gaming. Our Reno sports will have their tiger if they have to put him on a cupola.

We notice a number of very suspicious characters in town. Let our officers be on the look-out, and our citizens also. Too much leniency and mercy is cruelty to ourselves.

The length of a span for the new iron bridge is 150 feet instead of 190.

The closing services of the Methodist District Association will be held this evening at the Methodist Church. The Communion, or Lord's Supper, will be administered.

The young ladies at the Episcopal Seminary celebrated the inauguration of Hayes by a rousing bonfire last night.

The usual cargo of emigrants to-day. One of them was good looking—years ago.

Strange sight—An aged Missourian without any teeth bearing a sign on his back, "Gummed work a specialty."

The scenery about Reno can scarcely be excelled. The round grey hills beyond, the low lying valleys between the town clean and dry and dotted here and there with drunken Indians studying civilization.

Good cigars, 5 for 25 cents, at Yankee Dodge's. 3-7

Wanted immediately, a good furnished house. Apply at this office or to C. S. Varian. 3-21

SHAVING PARLORS.—Messrs. Morris & Frankfield take this method of announcing to their friends and the public in general, that they have opened a new and elegant hair dressing room, on Virginia street, fronting Budden's photograph gallery. Everything is new, neat and clean, including the very latest improved Rochester Barber Chairs, the only ones to be found in Reno. Everything necessary to be had to insure the comfort and pleasure of customers have been provided. Shaving, Hair Cutting, Shampooing and Dyeing done in a practical and workmanlike manner. All kinds of Hair Tonic and Hair Restoratives always on hand. Ladies and children's hair cutting and shampooing a specialty. MARK H. MORRIS. H. H. FRANKFIELD. 1-15

AT THE OLD STAND.—Pat Keliber has sold the Branch Saddle Rock and returned to the Saddle Rock original, next to the International hotel. This change has been made solely because Pat found himself unable to tend to both places with sufficient care. He prides himself upon his close attention to business and the large number of patrons which he has gained thereby. He now asks a continuance of past favors at the Saddle Rock and promises to deserve them more than ever. Old patrons only need to know the location while new comers are referred to the Saddle Rock for trial. Any man who is not satisfied will go free of charge. Pat points with pride to the number of fat men now roaming our streets, and confesses that his famous Eastern oysters and made dinners have done the work. Call at the Saddle Rock and you may be assured of good treatment and the best which the market affords.
